

South River Strings
Show Performance Under the Big Tent
Saturday, September 4th - 12:00 pm

South River Strings is a four-piece bluegrass, country, new grass band. From the harmonies to the beautiful sounds of acoustic instruments, we try to bring you a full experience of Appalachia and the way we all grew up with picking on the front porch. SRS members are Cole Daniels- mandolin/guitar lead vocals, Josh Williams- guitar/harmonica vocals, Will Joyce- dulcimer/dobro/banjo vocals and Forest Burnette- bass/guitar vocals.

SRS was selected to be one of ten artists to represent the state of Virginia for a benefit concert for St. Jude's research that raised tens of thousands of dollars to help children.
