

Mud Hole Control

Show Performance Under the Big Tent
Saturday, September 3rd - 12:00 noon

Mud Hole Control is an Old Time Music Band made of members from Greenbrier and Pocahontas Counties. Guitarist, JR Loudermilk, is well known for his work in old time and bluegrass music. He is joined by his cousins, Eric and Carl 'Pudge' Spencer. Eric sings tenor and plays guitar. Pudge is featured with his great baritone voice. JR's brother, Jerry 'Cannonball' Loudermilk, plays bass and newest members, Steven Castro and Benjamin Davis, play banjo and fiddle. Mud Hole Control's music takes the audience back to a simpler time that please the ear and heart of the listener.
